E-safety Pupil Rules

These e-Safety Rules help to protect students and the school by describing acceptable and unacceptable computer use.

- I understand that computing includes a wide range of systems, including mobile phones, tablets, digital cameras, email, and social networking.
- I understand that I should only use the computers and network for tasks my teacher allows.
- If I misuse the computing resources this will result in sanctions. Serious misuse may involve the police.
- I will use my own account and password unless my teacher instructs me otherwise.
- I will not share my password and log on details with others.
- I understand that I may not install or run software on the network without permission.
- I understand that all network and Internet use must be appropriate.
- I agree that all copyright and intellectual property rights must be respected.
- I understand that all messages shall be written carefully and politely, particularly as e-mail could be forwarded to other readers.
- I understand that I must take care not to reveal personal information, my own or others', through email, personal publishing, blogs or messaging.
- I agree to use school managed blogs, wikis and discussion groups appropriately and politely.
- I understand that the school computing systems may not be used for private purposes, unless the Headteacher has given specific permission.
- I agree that any inappropriate access to materials on the network or internet must be reported to a teacher.
- I understand that I must be socially responsible with regard to using the internet and other communication technologies, including treating others with respect, and reporting instances of online bullying.

School staff may at any time check your use of the school's computer systems.

William Gilpin CE VA Primary School E-Safety Rules

All pupils use computer facilities including Internet access as an essential part of learning, as required by the National Curriculum. Both pupils and their parents/carers are asked to sign to show that the e-Safety Rules have been understood and agreed.

Parent's Consent for Web Publication of Work and Photographs

I agree that my son/daughter's work may be electronically published. I also agree that appropriate images and video that include my son/daughter may be published.

Parent's Consent for Internet Access

I have read and understood the school e-safety rules and give permission for my son/daughter to access the Internet. I understand that the school will take all reasonable precautions to ensure that pupils cannot access inappropriate materials but I appreciate that this is a difficult task. I will support my child to abide by these rules and to accept the consequences if they choose to misuse the school's computing facilities.

I understand that the school cannot be held responsible for the content of materials accessed through the Internet. I agree that the school is not liable for any damages arising from use of the Internet facilities.
